

Brant Grondin

CURRICULUM VITAE

October 2005

g:\mcmel\workarea\brant.grondin

Brant Grondin is a principal in D&H Group LLP, a 55 person Vancouver C.A. firm. He has a broad systems and tax consulting practice with an emphasis on:

- private businesses
- information systems
- Scientific Research and Experimental Development claims
- tax reorganizations
- non resident taxation.

Brant has considerable experience advising clients in the technology and manufacturing industries.

Representative Experience

- Assisted a software development company in connection with a preparing and filing SRED refund claims over $ 600,000
- Acted for biotechnology company in obtaining GST refunds over $ 100,000 and filing ongoing SRED claims
- Acted for biotechnology company in a consulting role for a $ 15M initial public offering by preparing US GAAP financial statements with supporting file for Auditors
- Assisted a manufacturing two companies in installing an information system to meet management information needs and communicate with trading partners
- Performed operational review of large local union and implemented recommendations
- Acted as advisor to a consulting business in connection with a reorganization involving creditor proofing assets
- Acted for as advisor to a family business in reorganization of assets to ensure shares held qualify for the $ 500,000 capital gains exemption
- Acted as auditor for private software development company intending to go public in advising disclosure requirements
- Provided systems consulting to non profit organizations that lack internal expertise

Publications

- Apartment Investor, BC Apartment and Managers Association, February 2004, article on taxing non-resident property owners

Community Activities

- Member and Treasurer of Vancouver Kiwanis Club

Education and Training

- Chartered Accountant (1993)
- Certified Consultant for Accpac software