

Larry Bisaro

CURRICULUM VITAE

Larry Bisaro is a principal with D&H Group LLP, Chartered Accountants. Larry has over 25 years of experience in providing assurance, consulting and tax services. These services include providing:

- Assurance services for a broad spectrum of private companies
- Consulting services on acquisitions and divestures of businesses and real estate
- Tax services for private businesses and their principals
- Wealth preservation services
- Tax reorganization services
- Mergers and acquisitions and joint ventures advice

Larry has experience in advising clients in a broad spectrum of industries including restaurants, professional services, real estate development, wholesale and manufacturing industries.

Representative Experience

- Acted for a private Canadian company selling a business to a US public company including assisting in preparing the Canadian company for the two years of financial statements audit required for US regulatory purposes.
- Acted as advisor for family business in connection with corporate reorganization to preserve family assets and divide significant corporate assets between family members.
- Acted as advisor in the division of matrimonial assets which included shares of a corporation carrying on an active business, shares of a corporation holding investment assets and multiple real estate holdings.
- Acted for corporation developing medical devices to obtain venture capital and other funding, obtain government grants and investment tax credits on scientific research and development expenditures, structure employee share option plan, and spin out one of the product groups into a separate corporation on a tax advantageous manner.
- Acted as advisor for US investor to carry on business in Canada through US Sub S corporation and US S corporation including preparing financial statements and income tax returns for the corporations.
- Acted as advisor for medical doctor to incorporate medical practice and have equity ownership held by a discretionary family trust.
- Acted for a shareholder active in the business negotiate the disposition of his ownership in a complex corporate organization.
- Provide assurance services to private Canadian corporation and assist the corporation in going public through a reverse take over of a public corporation.

Community Activities

- Treasurer of Crofton House School Foundation
- Member of Immaculate Conception School Parent Advisory Committee