+ Core Services

+ Understanding

the unique environment of our clients helps us build strategic opportunities for their future.

At D+H Group, we believe in investing the time to listen and understand the individual needs and opportunities of each of our clients. We get to know your organization and become familiar with its purpose and activities, and in-turn, its future goals. Our staff have accumulated more than four hundred years of accounting, tax, and financial expertise, which combined with our careful research and creative thinking, results in a specific balanced approach for our clients.

+ Advising

our clients using a full spectrum of resources, allows us to develop innovative solutions.

Integrity and extensive knowledge of the environment enables us to present our clients with key strategies, ensuring future success. Keeping in mind the short and the long-term, we develop specialized solutions to deliver the best results to our clientele. By using a time tested collaborative process for developing financial solutions, D+H has developed a reputation for being a leader in the chartered accounting industry for more than fifty years.

+ Guiding

our client relationships with honour and ethics ensures greater financial success.

Developing an overall financial plan is the first step to the services we provide our customers. We are constantly working with clients to provide the best strategies and advice. This approach ensures our sights have guiding vision while allowing us to make quick decisions to take advantage of emerging opportunities and advancements. It is our duty to ensure the results are in the best interests of our clients and the public. The founding partners established this firm by setting the highest standards for respect, leadership, innovation and sound practice; the same standards we continue to follow today.
